

Curriculum vitae of Korbinian Hasenknopf

Born on the 13th December 1976 in Berchtesgaden

Professional training:

1992-1996 apprenticeship as metalworker in the family business of the father H.J. Hasenknopf, January 1996, exam to become a journey-level craft man

Professional career:

January 1996 until the end of March 1997 journey-level craft man at the company of H.J. Hasenknopf

Community service: Emergency Medical Services with the Red Cross until the end of March 1998

Further professional career: From June to December 1998 employed at the company of the Baumgartner family, Beckenried, Switzerland.

From December 1998 on, journey-level craft man at the father H.J. Hasenknopf's company, Berchtesgaden.

Summer 1999 exchange with the company of the Poitner family, Biberbach.

Summer 1999 intensive course "Kupfertreiben" (copper driving) under the supervision of Prof. Alfred Habermann in the centre of preservation of monuments and historic buildings in Venice. From September 2001 to July 2002 master school for metal design in Munich under the supervision of Stefan Forler. Examination for the master craftsman's certificate passed with the award of the "Meisterpreis" of the Free State of Bavaria in July 2002.

June 2002 first price together with my father H.J. Hasenknopf at the "Ferraculum" in Ybbsitz, Lower Austria. Sculpture: "Water search"

May 2004 examination for „certified electrician for specific activities in metal craft“ passed..

December 2005 first price together with Michael Poitner from Biberbach at the Christmassy smiths' meeting in Ybbsitz, Lower Austria. Sculpture: "Star".

Several participations in different smiths' meetings in Austria, Czechia, the Ukraine and Germany.